

March 26, 2023

Lent-Week 5: Each Little Bird that Sings

Let us make this Lenten journey together, and through our faith may we experience the beauty and splendor of creation. Let's remember to take time to focus on what is around us. Let us enrich ourselves by breathing in our surroundings and reflect upon all that is familiar to us. Throughout this Lenten season let's take time to calm our souls and mind, as we enable our hearts to soar.

When birds sing, we know we are safe - anonymous.

Make it your habit to awaken with the birds who from their branches and nests declare in perfect song the dawn of a new day - Steve McSwain

“The sound of birds stops the noise in my mind ” ~ Carly Simon